(Capital Leased Wire.)

Ottawa, Aug. 7.—Official instructions were issued this morning from the militia department for the mobilization of the contingent that will represent Canada in Britain. Detailed information has been supplied the commanding officers of the various military districts throughout Canada regarding the class of men to be enrolled, together with their physical fitness and other restrictions. The army of the force to be enlisted will include artillery, cavalry, infantry, transport and the various minor divisions of a complete army corps. The following orders were issued to the various officers in command throughout Canada.

Regulations to govern raising of the contingent for overseas service:

Force to be Imperial with the status of the British army. Enrollment to be voluntary. Physical qualifications: Height 5 feet 3 inches and over; chest measurement 33 1/2 inches and over. High standard of musketry required. Time of service to be governed by duration of the war.

Single men to be selected first, then married men without families, then married men with families. Officers to collect names of volunteers. The rolls must be in Ottawa and reach militia headquarters by Wednesday, August 12. The forces are to be mobilized at Val Cartier, Quebec, where the first contingent will be selected. (Signed Adjutant General.)

Rushing to America.

Washington, D.C., Aug. 7.—The immigration committee of the house of representatives has under consideration a bill to stop the rush of foreign born persons in America to their former homes in Europe, for the purpose of engaging in the European war. The bill would exclude from re-admission to this country aliens who go abroad to fight.

It has been estimated that probably two million men of foreign birth now living in this country have responded or will respond to the call to arms in the countries now at war.

Guard C.P.R. Main Line.

Calgary, Alta., Aug. 7.—Steps are being taken by the C.P.R. authorities here to guard the main line on the Alberta division. This afternoon a force of 90 men was sworn in for duty as special constables.

Lord Dunsford May Command

Toronto, Aug. 7.—Military men here today heard and are inclined to believe that Lord Dunsford will be invited to take command of Canada's army corps for war service.

Railway Employ Men.

Toronto, Aug. 7.—Two hundred men have been engaged today by the C.P.R., G.T.P. and C.N.R. to be distributed along their lines to guard track and property.

The finding of dynamite on the C.N.R. near Parry Sound is only one of the attempts recently made to destroy railroad property. The intention of the railway officials is to patrol their entire system, having headquarters at the principal terminal points. The men will be armed with rifles by permission of the dominion government. This force will be followed by another 200 men.

German Consuls Leaving Canada.

Vancouver, Aug. 7.—Instructions received here today to effect that Dominion order in council has just passed closing all German consulates in Canada and giving German consular officials 48 hours in which to leave the country.

England's Swells and Laborers All Eager to Enlist

Response to Kitchener's Appeal for Recruits Surpasses Anything in Memory of British Military Men—Correspondent for German Telegraphic Company, Held as Spy, is Released.

(Capital Leased Wire.)

London, Aug. 7.—The response to Field Marshall Earl Kitchener's appeal for recruits for the British army surpasses anything within the memory of British military men. Huge crowds of all ages and all stations of life, sick-hatted men and poorly clothed laborers, stood in long lines all day in front of the recruiting stations awaiting their turn to go before the medical officer.

Dr. Hans Plehn, correspondent of the German Telegraphic News agency, who had been placed under arrest, was released today after he had satisfied the police that he was not a spy. He has decided to return to Germany.

A despatch from Queenstown states the Celtic sailed from there today for New York after embarking 250 passengers who were glad to be allowed to occupy the steamer.

Russians Suffer Relapses

(Capital Leased Wire.)
Berlin, Aug. 7.—The force of Russian cavalry which tried to break through the German frontier guard was repulsed yesterday near Souda in east Prussia. Another Russian cavalry division also suffered losses and is retreating in the vicinity of Neidenburg.

To Escort Liners

(Capital Leased Wire.)

Quebec, Que., Aug. 7.—It is understood here that a British cruiser will be sent to Canadian waters within 10 days to escort and protect the two liners Victoria and Caroline that will depart with over 3,000 French refugees for France.

The Modern Samson

Count Okuma, the Japanese premier, is reported to have declared that the present European war, if continued, would mean the destruction of western civilization.

SON JOINS NAVY; IRISH LADY WILL FOLLOW HIM HOME

Edmonton Woman Wants to Be Near Her Boy Who Has Joined British Armada.

MANY EDMONTONIANS RISK OCEAN PASSAGE

Are Not Afraid of German Battleships; Liners for Britain Crowded.

Despite the fact that war has broken out and the trip may include a chance by a German battleship and possible capture and retention in Germany, thousands of old country people residing in Canada and Canadians with relatives in the old country are anxious to make the trip across the ocean and as long as there are boats running they will be crowded to capacity. The suspension of the Cunard and other lines has caused a great pressure of traffic upon the Allan line, C. P. R., C. N. R. and White Star boats sailing from Canadian ports.

All available space on these boats is booked a long distance ahead and passengers are anxious to leave within a month in finding difficulty in securing accommodation. At 10 o'clock this morning, an Irish lady, whose son has left to join the British army, booked a passage for November 21. She is alone here and wants to be as near as possible to her boy.

Bookings for the old country are heavy at all the local steaming offices, intending passengers seeming to have the utmost confidence in the ability of the British fleet to keep the trade routes open and defend British shipping.

DENIES DISCOURTESY WAS SHOWN RUSSIAN NOBILITY BY GERMANS

Berlin, Aug. 7.—The German foreign office today declared false the stories that discourtesy had been shown German nobility toward the Russian Emperor Maria Feodorovna and the Grand Duke Constantine of Russia. Officially state that her majesty was received with the greatest respect on her arrival in Berlin and that her train was directed to Denmark because the territory east of Berlin was in a state of war.

TWO MILITARY PARADES TO BE HELD TONIGHT

There will be two parades tonight with bands and military.

The 10th Regiment will parade from the barracks on Fourth street at 7.45 with both the regimental band and the bugle band, the men being in full service dress.

A number of ex-army men and volunteers will also be formed at the United Service club headquarters, where hundreds of men are applying for enlistment. The United Service parade will start at 8 o'clock and will be led by the Pipes and the Newboys' band, both bugle and drum corps. The parade will go to the north side via the high level bridge.

F. A. Whitty, secretary of the United Service club, states that the number of 600 single men, everyone of whom has been in service, have been forwarded from Edmonton to the militia department at Ottawa, by the United Service club. The names of 200 married men who have seen service have also been sent. Three hundred additional names of volunteers who have not seen service have been secured and will be forwarded to Ottawa. Twenty-two services, who have British naturalization papers, have applied for enlistment. In the British ranks and their names have been forwarded.

The club is doing considerable service in getting in touch with all the ex-army men in the district. The full name, address and address of each man offering his services are on record.

JAPANESE TROOPS NOW IN READINESS FOR MOBILIZATION

(Capital Leased Wire.)

Tokio, Aug. 7.—The reserve army of officers have been advised to hold themselves in readiness for possible mobilization.

A flying squadron of seven cruisers has been organized at Yokosuka. Prince Fushimi is in command. The battleship squadron has been increased to eight vessels and is ready for service. Admiral Kato is in command. The fortifications at Vladivostok, Asiatic Russia and at Aigun, the French possession in China have been strengthened to meet a possible bombardment of German warships, whose whereabouts are now unknown.

TRAMWAYS LIMITED ANXIOUS TO BEGIN WORK ON PROJECT

Can Obtain Money in New York and Are Now Waiting on City Council

WOULD EMPLOY 300 MEN AND 80 TEAMS

Engineer States Other Interurban Lines Now Under Consideration

It will be welcome news to Edmontonians that notwithstanding the war in Europe, and the consequent tightening of money, Tramways Limited, the company which proposes to build an interurban line from the First street market north to a point east of the village of Nanayo, can get money for the undertaking, and is prepared to proceed with the work as soon as the arrangements can be finally completed with the city council, all of the members of which seem to have agreed on the proposition offered by the company.

However, for some reason or another the agreement has not yet been approved by the council and submitted to the burgesses, although it is apparently agreeable to both contracting parties. The company is willing to go ahead with the work as soon as the agreement is approved by the city fathers, and will take a chance on its passing the burgesses.

A. B. Farncombe, the civil engineer who is connected with the project and also other similar undertakings in the province told the Capital yesterday that some of the directors of the company were afraid that they would not be able to obtain money after war was declared by the nations of Europe, but a wire from New York yesterday dispelled any fears they had in that regard, unless, of course, conditions change for the worse in the American metropolis.

The bonds of the company are guaranteed by the provincial government under the assistance-to-light-railways legislation passed last session. He said and the fact that it is an industrial enterprise were two reasons why the New York money magnates look so favorably upon it. "We will employ about 300 men and 80 teams in this work," said Mr. Farncombe, "and we are ready to start as soon as the arrangements are completed with the city council, all of the

FRENCH TROOPS ENTER BELGIUM

German and British Fleets Manoeuvre for Strategic Positions at Sea—Official Announcement in Parliament That Stories of Fighting and Losses Are Unfounded—Small Engagements in Chinese Waters.

(Capital Leased Wire.)

London, Aug. 7.—An Exchange Telegraph despatch from Brussels says the German troops at Liege acknowledge a loss of 25,000 men. The agency says this is unofficial. Another despatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Brussels says the French army has now entered Belgium and has advanced well into the country.

Reports of an encounter between the Germans and British, manoeuvring for strategic positions in the sea, kept the British public in a state of agitation throughout the forenoon. The excitement was not allayed until the first lord of the admiralty made the official announcement in parliament that stories of fighting and losses other than those of the British cruiser Amphion and the German liner Koenigin Luise were unfounded.

News from the German side was extremely meager owing to the interruption of direct telegraphic communication. Denials came from Berlin by way of other countries of the "repulse" of German forces before the Belgian city of Liege, where Belgian sources declare the attackers have been badly checked with heavy losses. Movements of great aggregations of troops, which must by this time have gathered at their springing off points on the German frontiers facing the Russian and French armies, are kept from public knowledge.

Military authorities here, however, are of the opinion that preparations must be almost ready for a forward movement which will give some indication of the plan of campaign to be followed.

The French army authorities have also raised a heavy screen to hide developments in their war move. They seem entirely satisfied with the manner in which the men of the nation responded to the call to arms and they declare every preliminary move to have been carried out according to the plans drafted by the commander-in-chief, General Joseph Joffre.

From the far off parts of the world, where Germany, England and France have colonies, all of which are in state of defence, only brief despatches trickle over the wires. These indicate that small engagements have occurred, especially in Chinese waters where French, German, British and Russian war vessels are stationed. The most important news from that quarter is the report that the British squadron has hemmed in the German vessels at Tsing Tau, which is strongly fortified and has an enormous garrison of German troops.

Paris and London send unconfirmed despatches concerning the fighting at Liege, Belgium.

The French telegram states that fierce fighting continues in the streets, while the London message reports the German attackers asking for an armistice.

Liege Will Not Surrender.

(Capital Leased Wire.)

Brussels, Aug. 7.—(via London)—The bombardment of Liege had caused six or seven fires in the city up to 7 o'clock last evening. The heaviest firing occurred yesterday afternoon. German officers, who came to the city with a white flag and demanded the surrender of the place. They received a negative reply. Bombardment was resumed. Martial law has been proclaimed throughout Belgium.

German Cruiser Not Lost.

(Capital Leased Wire.)

Peking, Aug. 7.—The German cruiser, Emden, which was reported sunk yesterday, is said to have returned to Tsing Tau today with one of the big vessels of the Russian volunteer fleet sailing between Nagasaki and Vladivostok, the latter ship carried nearly 1,000 passengers and crew.

Rainbow Active on Pacific.

(Capital Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, Aug. 7.—The German freighter Alexandria of the Cosmos line with a million dollar cargo in her hold was sighted five miles outside the heads, bound in, at 1:50 a.m. Had the Canadian Rainbow, which passed in two hours and twenty minutes earlier, delayed her arrival, she might have made a rich prize of war.

EX-CHIEF OF POLICE CLAIMS DAMAGES FOR WRONGFUL DISMISSAL

Stiles H. Carpenter, former chief constable of Edmonton, has entered a claim against the city for the sum of $400 and costs as damages for wrongful dismissal.

C. F. Newell, K.C., is acting for Mr. Carpenter. The claim states that the plaintiff entered into the service of the city as chief of police on October 1, 1912, and continued in employment with the city in that capacity until January 1, 1914, on which day he claims that he was "wrongfully dismissed."

Liege Still Holds Out

(Capital Leased Wire.)

Brussels, Aug. 7.—News received from Liege last night shows that the fortress is still holding out. It is being bombarded by heavy shells, but is still undamaged, while the Belgian fire is working heavy among the German forces. It is reported that French forces are increasing from several directions.

Two Cruisers Sunk

(Capital Leased Wire.)

London, Aug. 7.—A despatch to the London Daily Mail from Tien Tsin says that the Russian Cruiser Askold and the German Cruiser Emden both have been sunk after an engagement off Wei Hai Wei.

RAIN OF SHOT AND SHELL DRIVING GERMAN SQUADRON ON THE COAST OF HOLLAND

Big Guns of Sir John Jellicoe's Battleships Raising Havoc With Enemy's War Vessels—Report Says Nineteen Hostile Craft Have Been Sunk and Fifty Captured—Admiralty Notifies Boat Owners That Shipping Is Now Safe to the East, For Germany's Navy Is Being Kept Busy.

(Capital Leased Wire)

London, Aug. 7. (6 a.m.)—It was announced here at 1:35 this morning that the British fleet has engaged the German ships on the high seas. According to one report the Germans are being driven toward the coast of Holland under the terrific rain of tons of shot and shell from the big guns of Sir John Jellicoe's battleships.

The many persistent circumstantial reports of the naval fight suggest that the rumor has a basis of truth. Incoming fishing boats brought the first cohesive stories of fighting to Lowestoft. The fishermen said they had seen a lively scrap between two destroyers. After that there was a succession of reports from east coast towns that orders had been issued for the preparation of hospitals.

A ship owner at Whitby has announced that he has been informed that a great battle has been fought and 19 German warships have been sunk. The people of Hull, Grimsby and Harwich are convinced of the truth of this reported battle and have been straining their eyes seaward but have seen nothing. There is great excitement all along the east coast. Kirkwall reports prolonged firing to the eastward. The Orkneys and Kirkcaldy make similar reports, and say that the firing appeared to be off the Firth of Forth.

Official confirmation of these reports, however, is entirely lacking. London, Aug. 7. (3:40 a.m.)—A despatch to the Daily News from Newcastle says that a wireless received at South Shields shortly before midnight states that the British fleet engaged the German high seas' fleet in a heavy battle off the South Dogger banks. After a general engagement along the battle line, which extended for many miles and in which many ships on both sides took part, the German fleet was beaten back and moved in the direction of the coast of Holland.

It is now believed that the German fleet is completely hemmed in the eastern side of the North sea.

All the rest of the sea is in the control of the British fleets. Support for this contention is found in the official permission given to fishing trawlers to leave the Tyne ports, those of the Humber and other east coast fishing centers for the fishing grounds today. This had been forbidden for two days.

The surgeon in charge of the South Shields hospital received a wireless message last night asking what accommodation he had for the wounded. He replied that he could take care of 1,000 persons.

German Squadron Bottled.

Tokio, Aug. 7.—An authentic report received here states that the German squadron has been bottled up at Tsing-Tau by the British.

Kaiser's Fleet Chased.

London, Aug. 7. (1:45 a.m.)—The admiralty announces that British coastwise shipping on the east coast is now safe because the British fleet has engaged the Germans on the high seas and the German fleet is now being chased toward the coast of Holland.

Trawler Witnesses Fight.

Lowestoft, Eng., Aug. 7.—Trawlers returning here today report they witnessed fighting in the North Sea Wednesday. A German destroyer was fleeing from two British cruisers. A dense cloud of smoke from the destroyer gave the impression that she was afire.

Tubantia Proves Pirate.

Plymouth, Aug. 7.—The Holland Lloyd steamer Tubantia from South America which has been brought here by warships has $2,500,000 in gold aboard, part of which is consigned to the German Bank of London. There are also several German reservists besides a quantity of grain aboard the Tubantia.

Shipping Now Safe.

London, Aug. 7.—A dispatch to the Press Association from South Shields says that ship owners on the Tyne have received information from the admiralty that they may send their vessels anywhere in the North Sea by daylight as the British fleet got into touch with the German on the high seas.

Battle Likely Today.

Buenos Ayres, Aug. 7.—The British cruiser Glasgow and the German cruiser Bremen were sighted off the Brazilian coast yesterday. A battle between the two warships is believed likely today. The Brazilian government has hurried the scout cruisers Rio Grande, Dosul and Bahan to Santos to preserve the nation's neutrality.

Fifty Steamers Captured.

Madrid, Aug. 7.—(Via Paris, Aug. 7.)—According to official advices more than 50 German steamers have been captured by the British squadron today.

Prince of Wales to Fight

London, Aug. 7.—The Prince of Wales has been given a commission in the Grenadier Guards and will go into active service probably in England.

KAISER WILL BE STARVED OR FORCED INTO CAPITULATION BY REVOLTS WITHIN EMPIRE

Paris, Aug. 7.—While troops move through Paris streets on their way to the front, there is a remarkable spirit of confidence and a general lack of hysterical excitement among the citizens who are being left in the city. This assurance, so universal everywhere in the city that French arms are to be victorious, is no doubt added to by the constant reports coming from Belgium that troops there are successfully holding back the German invasion. The general feeling that France is destined during this war to get full revenge for 1870 and the confidence that is everywhere expressed, has made a marked impression on all tourists still unwarmed within the city.

Hourly the impression is gaining strength that the war will not last long, cannot last long, because Germany, cut off as she is, will soon be forced to capitulate or starve to death. There is even a well-defined feeling here that when the pinch of famine comes, if the Kaiser does not submit of his own accord, he will be forced to do so by popular revolts within his empire. Even with France at war and a great part of her male population enlisted and off to the front, all of the light-mindedness of the Parisian spirit is not lost. There are humorous incidents on every hand. Above many shops that have been closed, for instance, are suspended posters making light announcements of the cause of suspension. Here are the words of a playbill in the window of a barber shop in the Rue Royale:

"Our clients are hereby notified that we have transferred our staff to Nancy."

Nancy is a city on the French frontier, where a battle is expected at any time.

CANADIAN NORTHERN TO KEEP POSITIONS OPEN.

W. A. Brown, general superintendent of the Canadian Northern railway, stated today that should necessity demand the services of any of the Canadian Northern employees for military duty, they would be free to go to the front, and their positions would be retained for them. He has also stated that the company will give all aid possible to such employees who may be called upon to proceed to the front.

THE LATE MRS. WOODROW WILSON

Death of Mrs. Wilson Casts Gloom Over American Nation

Friends of the Poor, Her Latest Words Were of Bill Now Before Congress for Improvement of Alleys—Thought More of President's Health Than Her Own.

Washington, Aug. 7.—Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the president of the United States died at the White House at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Death came after a brave struggle of months against Bright's disease, with complications.

The president was completely unnerved by the shock and his grief was heart-rending. He bore up well under the strain, however, and devoted himself to his duties.

The end came while Mrs. Wilson was unconscious. Her illness took a turn for the worse shortly before 1 o'clock in the afternoon and from then on she lay at the bedside at the end were the president and their three daughters, Dr. C. Grayson, U.S.N., and a nurse were in the room, and just outside a door were Secretary McAdoo and Francis Sawyer, Mr. Wilson's son-in-law and Mr. Tumulty, his secretary.

Both houses adjourned. When Mrs. Wilson's death was announced. The beginning of the end came at 10 o'clock yesterday morning when Dr. J. J. Davis of Philadelphia, who had been called in for consultation, realized that the time for hope had passed. In a broken voice he told the president. Mr. Wilson's face blanched, but he bore the shock well. He was informed that the end was only a question of hours.

During the day Mrs. Wilson spoke to Dr. Grayson about the president whose health she thought more about than about her own.

"Promise me," she whispered faintly, "if I go, you will take care of my husband."

It was the same touch of devotion which she had so many times repeated in her constant anxiety that the president should not worry about her or be disturbed in his official tasks.

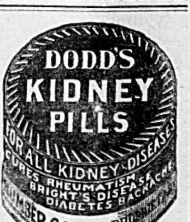

Sank Into Sleep. At 2 o'clock Mrs. Wilson was still conscious but her strength had all departed and a few minutes later she sank into the sleep of unconsciousness from which she never awoke.

Just at the hour of five death came. The president and his daughters were in tears. Secretary Tumulty walked slowly to the executive office, his head bowed. Quietly he announced to the correspondents that the end had come. A pall of gloom settled over the executive mansion and the office. Presently Dr. Grayson with his handkerchief worn from day and night vigil, came to the office. There was an impressive silence everywhere.

Vice-president Marshall and members of the cabinet and leaders in congress were notified. The flag on the White House was dropped, gates were closed and the silence of death spread over the executive mansion for the first time since 1892 when Mrs. Benjamin Harrison passed away.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been made. The place of her burial will be either Rome, Ga., her birth place, or Princeton, N. J., where the family has lived for 23 years. Members of the cabinet, justices of the supreme court, members of the diplomatic corps telephoned their condolences and sent cards. From many humble homes came flowers. As Mrs. Wilson had made many friends in the senate and in the city generally in her endeavor to help the friendless and poverty-stricken.

Friend of Poor. She had told the president this morning that she would more cheerfully "to away" if the bill for the improvement of alleys was passed by congress. A word to leaders from Secretary Tumulty and the measure was adopted in silence by the senate and soon reported in the house where it will be passed tomorrow. She learned that the measure would be a law in another day or so and expressed her satisfaction. She had become deeply interested in the social welfare of the community and had worked always without seeking the aid of the president. It was the strain of this, the duties of entertainment and the kidney trouble which became chronic last autumn that sapped her life.

Mrs. Wilson had been ill since last February, when she fell in the White House and strained her spine. She later practically recovered from that injury but in the meantime kidney trouble set in and gradually she grew worse. Mrs. Wilson was 50 years old.

THREE MEN KILLED IN ELEVATED TRAIN HOLDUP IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Aug. 7.—Two men were killed and three wounded last night in robberies of four elevated railway stations, on the west side by a gang which used an automobile. The dead: Policeman John Howe, 45; John Stevens, 70, veteran of the civil war, who resisted robbers when they attempted to take cash at the Wood street station.

Michael Gary, seriously wounded by Policeman Nels Larson, was found in an alley through which the robbers sought to escape. Gustave Mentol, a ticket agent, was shot in the leg and W. Graff, was shot in the right hand. The robbers stopped long enough at the Wood street station after killing Stevens to gather up about $25. Running outside, they frightened Gary, who was shot as he raised his hands above his head.

Policeman Larson emptied his revolver at the robbers as they fled. Policeman Howe saw them coming toward him, but before he could shoot, he was dropped by two shots, which, according to Larson, were fired by Gary. Larson reloaded his revolver and shot Gary. He continued the chase all over defenses of Mazatlan. Last night and today there was fighting between constitutionalists and the federal garrison.

Says War is Justified. New York, Aug. 7.—Andrew Carnegie, the world's most distinguished advocate of peace, approves of Great Britain's course in the present crisis. In a cable message from Scotland to the New York Evening Post, he says: "Germany having declined Britain's proposed peace conference and then having asked Britain to agree to her march through Belgium, Britain is bound to decline and to declare that she would protect Belgium by land and sea."

Ready for Call to Arms. Regina, Aug. 7.—By the enrollment of an additional 100 men the 95th Saskatchewan militia battalion, practically to full strength yesterday. List of applicants will be sent to Ottawa today. The regiment are holding themselves in readiness for a call to arms. Armed guards are maintained.

A previous report said that the German mine layer Koonigen Louise had probably placed some mines before she was sunk by the British torpedo boat Lance. The Amphion was a light cruiser of 3,440 tons. She was attached to the third destroyer fleet, under Captain Cecil H. Fox, commanding officer. Her regular complement was 292 men. She was commissioned in April 1913.

THE KAISER'S PLANS

BORROWED FROM THE PAST

Developing incidents bring out more clearly as the hours go by how completely obsessed the German Kaiser is with the mania that he must repeat with German arms the incidents of 1870-71.

Bismarck tells in his memoirs of how the Germans jockeyed upon that occasion to thrust France into the position of making the declaration of war, and points out that in doing so he was looking ahead to the favorable position this circumstance would place them in when the time came for negotiating the treaty of peace. The incidents of last week show that the Kaiser attempted to duplicate this finesse of Bismarck's, but lacking the genius of Bismarck and the circumstances being different, he failed to force France into the position of being the country blameable for the commencement of hostilities. Then the French were possessed by the war mania and were carried away by the belief that they could wipe out the Prussian army. Now France has no such mania and although she has prepared for years for the inevitable struggle she has been loath to launch it and evidently is carried away by no false confidence. France is in a much better position to meet the Germans today than in the disastrous campaign of 1870.

In the planning of his campaign, also, the Kaiser has followed very closely the methods of Moltke. In the Franco-Prussian war Moltke sent three divisions across the French frontier, one in the north, one in the centre and one in the south. In the present campaign, so far as the dispatches indicate, the Kaiser is attempting to duplicate this performance exactly. But his advance guard of the northern army, going this time by way of Belgium, has met an unexpected resistance on the part of the Belgians at Liege and his plans, so far, have been frustrated. What success the advances attempted by the central army at Nancy and the southern army which is attempting to cross the French frontier in the neighborhood of the Swiss border will have remains to be seen. Their efforts up to date, however, in whatever little skirmishes have been fought, have, apparently been highly unsuccessful for the Germans.

Between the war of 1870 and the present war there is this gigantic difference so far as Germany is concerned, that whereas in 1870 Germany fought France alone, the Kaiser's army of today is fighting almost the whole of Europe. This present war is upon an entirely new basis. New forces are being engaged, new fighting machinery employed and new methods of warfare adopted. The generals whom the Kaiser is attempting to imitate had no Belgian army to hold him up, no hostile Switzerland ready to fall upon his flank, no British navy to fight, no war with Russia, and no Scandinavian nations ready to fall upon him at a moment's notice. His one ally, Austria, has evidently more than she can do to hold off Serbia and keep her people from revolution, and Italy appears to have gone back upon him.

The plans of Bismarck and Moltke were plans made for the war in which they were then engaged. The attempt to apply them to the present war will undoubtedly be the Kaiser's undoing.

The Kaiser is living in the past. The war is the Kaiser's war. The great bulk of the people of his own country have very little sympathy with him or his war. He and his institutions are a blockade in the path of human progress which must be removed. The finish, quite probably, will be a German republic. The safety of a republic lies in the fact that it cannot be thrust into a war by a single maniac.

BRITAIN'S FIGHT TO PRESERVE ONE THOUSAND YEARS OF LIBERTY.

The action of the liberal convention in Calgary in waiving all questions of politics and limiting itself in one single resolution intended to show that in such an emergency there is no longer any partisanship in Canada but a united front to the enemy is one which will command itself to Canadians of all parties.

Canadians, in times of peace, may hold differences of opinion as to whether they should be governed at Ottawa, as to whether it is better for the country that the government at Ottawa shall be liberal or conservative, but they are of one mind that it shall not be ruled from Vienna or Berlin.

Canadians enjoy the freest institutions in the world, and their government is the most closely representative, the claims of the various republics to the contrary notwithstanding. Canada's laws guarantee every man security from secret accusation and a public trial. They offer every man a vote, giving him an opportunity to exercise a voice in the making of her laws and the framing of her institutions. Canada compels no man to take up arms or wear a uniform, but is one of the few countries in the world where military service, in times of peace or war, is absolutely voluntary. Canada's government is open at all times to criticism, and Canadian newspapers have absolute liberty to say what they choose in commendation or condemnation of any public servant's public acts. Canada extends by right of law no privilege to any one class of citizens which may not be generally enjoyed by all. And Canada is making greater progress in the matter of human liberty than any other country in the world today.

All these things Canada enjoys, and not one of them Germany enjoys. Germany is not governed by a free parliament, but by an autocracy. Her laws guarantee no security to the humble citizen, but on the contrary arrest may be made without warrant in Germany, prisoners may be held indefinitely without bail, counsel may be refused and government officers and military may be debared from testimony by the courts. Germany has no habeas corpus. Germany's franchise laws are a travesty upon justice, giving electors of one class two, three or four times the power of electors of another class and denying others all rights to vote or participate in the law-making process. Germany takes three of the best years out of the life of every man for soldiery, compulsion, and counts every man a soldier who is required to bear arms when called upon to do so by an autocratic authority. German governmental institutions are not open to criticism and the autocratic authority in Germany may jail newspaper men at will and abrogate the freedom of the press. Germany extends by law privileges to the military which makes the position of the civilian that of living under suzerainty from the military authority. Germany's progress in human liberty is backward, not forward, and is framed upon the evident intention to make every man an automaton to perform whatever acts the mad Kaiser may at his pleasure feel called upon to demand. Germany, in the matter of human liberty, stands away back where Britain stood nearly a thousand years ago, and where Canada never stood since the commencement of her history.

The triumph of German arms in Europe would mean the loss of one thousand years of progress in liberty. The British empire, standing for liberty and the spread thereof, has no choice in this war. She must fight. And Canada, as the beneficiary of that freedom which the British empire guarantees, must assist in that fight.

IN THE PARLOR CAR

Railway and Shipping News

Despite the war clouds which hang over the world, the Grand Trunk paid last month one million dollars in wages to its employees, and soon to be the system. That is "some money," as the street would say—real money, not on the first of the month, as the clock, as it has been without fall since the beginning—growing in bulk all the time, and soon to be doubled and trebled by the Grand Trunk Pacific although there will be, of course, a double set of books kept. The clock is harder than the "long green," but in such places as do not lack a bank the bills are forwarded to the agents, and they are the rule. The vast majority of the employees receive a wage which compares favorably with the general average. A goodly portion of the monthly pay is paid in advance, but as it is absolutely regular and safe, the employees have no trouble in accomplishing their financial purposes. The regular saving, however small, has enabled scores and hundreds of Grand Trunk employees to own their own homes in various parts of the dominion. The providing of this monthly pay—each man being paid to the right cent without mistake, and all on the same instant, means much labor.

"There is this delightful thing about greatness, it is generally simple," said H. R. Charlton, head of the publicity department of the Grand Trunk, when he returned to Montreal from his varied itinerary with Sir Conan Doyle, an itinerary which included St. James Park and camping out in Algonquin Park in a log camp, close to nature and unconventionality.

Gratuities, at the near view, is apt to disappoint, but Mr. Charlton says that Sir Conan was so simple and unaffected, so warm in his regard, so genial and wholesome and human, that it was a pleasure and nothing but that, to be with him.

"It is so sincere and simple, so free from all sides, so natural and forgetful of 'show' that it is a treat to be in his company. Sir Conan enjoyed every moment of his stay in the country. When he came out it was for rest and nothing but that, but he was so impressed at once with the country and its resources, together with the spirit of enterprise that marked our people, that he told me he felt he must give his impressions to the public. This he is doing in a series of articles for the British and American magazines."

"He had many offers while he was out camping, as might be expected. 'He met the interviewers all over, never turned them away, had the pleasant word and smile. Wherever he went, he was popular to a degree. He was so hearty and took so sincere an interest in everything. Lady Doyle, while we were camping in Algonquin Park, caught a silver salmon trout in Smoke Lake and was very proud of her success. Both of them enjoyed the itinerary thoroughly and take back the pleasant recollections of the Dominion."

"Doubtless, Canada will appear in not a little of Sir Conan's work in the immediate future."

Frank Scott, the new vice-president of the Grand Trunk, is widely known in general banking and financial circles as well as in the railway world. He is a member of a distinguished Montreal family, being the son of the late Dr. William E. Scott, M.D., for many years professor of anatomy at McGill University and chief medical officer of the Grand Trunk railway, and is a brother of Reverend Canon Scott of Quebec, one of the leading Canadian poets. Mr. Scott has been treasurer of the Grand Trunk railway for the past thirteen years, and is the chief officer or treasurer of the Grand Trunk Pacific in 1914. He entered railway service in 1873 as clerk in the audit department of the Grand Trunk and has risen steadily to the vice-presidency. In 1891 he was appointed secretary of the audit, board and purchasing committee. Two years later he was made assistant treasurer and succeeded Charles F. Scott as treasurer in 1901. He is a member of the board of directors of the Grand Trunk Pacific, past president of the society of Railway Financial Officers of America and is a former chairman of the St. James Club, Montreal.

Walter H. Hartman, Auditor, the new comptroller, has in his 30 year's service with the Grand Trunk risen from the junior clerkship to his present position as chief of the whole accounting department of the big system. He entered railway service November 1, 1884, and has been chief clerk and general book-keeper in general auditor's office 1893 to 1907; Auditor of disbursements 1907 to 1908; Acting Chief Auditor August 31 to December 31, 1908, and general Auditor Grand Trunk and Grand Trunk Pacific railways from January 1, 1909 to date. He was recently appointed to the board of directors of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway.

Morley Donaldson, Vice-president and general manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific, is arranging for the visit of Mr. Smithers to the west, a visit which is expected to take place some time this month. The chairman is expected to go to Prince Rupert this time to inspect the new line. In the attractive literature the Grand Trunk Pacific circulates, the public is informed that the western line is a line of operation; that it is running on schedule time; that it is doing an increasing business; that it is doing a large number of settlers are doing well along the route and looking forward, hundreds of them, to the harvest, with a certainty of good crops, for which they are likely to get 41 per bushel. If not more, and that the system, when it is finished will open up the most fertile portions of British Columbia, which are yet to be settled. All this is set forth in the best examples of the "art preservative."

Preparations are made to welcome the English school teachers who are touring the west. The tour is led by a member of the British House of Commons, E. W. Goldstone, who is secretary of the National Union of Teachers, an association whose membership totals nearly 75,000. The visitors arrived in Montreal on the Algonquin and after being received at McGill University will take a 600 mile tour over the Grand Trunk lines, visiting Ottawa, Montreal, Hamilton and Niagara Falls. They will spend two days in Algonquin park, enjoying the fishing and boating around the Thousand Islands, and will leave New York on their return to Great Britain on August 14.

For farming promises to be one of the most successful of the industries springing up along the line of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway. At several points west of Graham, Ont. to be established, Macdonald, Macdonald and Hudson being among the points chosen. A Prince Edward Island company is also making arrangements to establish itself in this territory. Black farms are the main type of these far farms but silver, red and crossed farms are being bred with other bearing animals.

The Adventures of Kathlyn

By Harold MacGrath.

SYNOPSIS OF PREVIOUS CHAPTERS.

Kathlyn Kane, believing her father, Col. Kane, in peril, has summoned her, leaves her home in California to go to his aid in Alaska. Unhappily, she is informed that the colonel, marked by the late king as his heir, because he favored the American war effort on his royal mission.

After a ride filled with peril, Kathlyn is informed by Umbalash that her father has been killed. Because of her refusal she is sentenced to undergo two ordeals with wild beasts.

John Bruce, an American and fellow-passenger on the boat, which brought Kathlyn to Alaska, saves her life. The colonel, which carries her from the scene of her trials becomes frightened and runs away, leaving her from Bruce and the rest of the party.

Kathlyn takes refuge in a palatial temple, but her father is still alive, and she is forced to flee from it. She finds a retreat in the jungle, where she meets the hands of a band of slave traders, who bring her to a place of public market. She is sold to Umbalash, who, finding her still alive, sends her to the king's palace.

Bruce and his friends effect the release of Kathlyn and the colonel, and the fugitives are given shelter in the palace of the king. Kathlyn is surrounded by captives and servants by the king's palace, but she is determined to reach the coast, but is overpowered by a band of warriors and friends and the encounter results in the colonel being deposed. Kathlyn is then taken to the king's palace and is taken to the king's palace and is taken to the king's palace.

"Jump!"

Without hesitation Kathlyn flung herself into space. A murmur ran through the crowd, which had for the moment forgotten its own danger in the wonder of this spectacle. The men holding the net threw themselves back, and as Kathlyn struck the mesh, even then her body touched the street below. She was bruised and shaken severely, but, O, alive, alive! There rose the great shouting which Umbalash and the dancing girl had heard.

Shortly after the house collapsed. The fire spread to the houses on each side.

Bruce seized the banner by the arm. "Now, the house which Umbalash entered."

Eagerly enough the slave directed him. For all the abuse and beatings he had borne, he was now a man. But they found the house empty except for a chattering monkey and a screaming parakeet, both attached to pedal perches. Bruce liberated them and returned to the colonel.

"Gone! Well, let him hide in the jungle; a prey to fear and hunger. At least we are rid of him. But I shall not be unhappy in his life we two to meet again!"

"John!" She withdrew from her father's arms and looked at him. The man who loved her and whom she loved, as youth will and must. "Let him go. Why should we care? Take me to my sister."

Alarmed smiles as he and his men rolled the net. This was as it should be. For what man was a better made for his golden haired Menashib? And then he thought of Lal Singh and he chose a title. For Lal Singh and he had spent many pleasant hours together. They had worked together in play and in war, shared danger and bread and glory, all of which was written in the books of the British raj in Ceylon.

It was the will of Allah; there was but one God, and Mahomet was his prophet. The Almed dismissed Lal Singh and the past from his thoughts, after the philosophical manner of the Almed and turned to the more vital affairs under hand.

At Umbalash's house there was a party. A woman, on a horse, had confessed to her lord how near she had been to Christian damnation. She had fallen from grace; she had reverted to the old customs of her race to whom suicide was not sin. Hamal took her in his arms and touched her forehead with his lips.

"And now," said the colonel, "the king."

"What is the matter? Is he dead?" "If I knew that," answered Umbalash, "I would not be here."

"But you searched the royal prison?" "And found nothing, nothing."

"What do you believe?" "I believe that either the council or Umbalash has forestalled us. We shall visit the council at once. They are prisoners. If they had had no hand in the disappearance of the king, then we are facing a strong wall which we cannot leap. For Umbalash has fled, whether no one knows, and with him has gone the secret. Come, we shall go at once to the palace prison."

The council which had ruled so long in the palace was a body of men. They had given many evidences of mental anarchy. Perhaps unwittingly they had proclaimed his death. Durga Ram had discovered what they had done and had held it over their heads like a sword blade. That the king was not in his dungeon, why and wherefore, was beyond their knowledge. They were in power, but they were not in control. They had told the truth. And Kathlyn, much as she detested the Almed, she was not to be deceived. It was required that they remain incarcerated till the king was found dead or alive.

MINSTREL MAIDS AT EMPIRE THEATRE FOR EXHIBITION WEEK

Edmonton theatergoers have a treat in store for them when the "Merry Minstrel Maids," a remarkably clever aggregation of entertainers, come to the Empire theatre next Monday, for a three-week engagement.

These noted entertainers carry through a show that is of decided interest from start to finish. Every-thing is presented in a manner which has broken all records for attendance. It is not usual for a big show to be produced by young women only, but that is what the "Merry Minstrel Maids" do. They do not only carry through the show, but the stage is managed and the company is looked after by women. Miss Grace Russell, who is bringing the company here, is regarded by many as one of the most enterprising and successful show managers of today. She attributes her success in the theatrical world to hard work and her ability as a press agent, which has enabled her to book the "Minstrel Maids" for an extended tour of Australia. As a press agent Miss Russell often wins out where many men would fail because she has had experience in the newspaper field. Her father, Captain William P. De la Chaine, was managing editor of the New Orleans (La.) Picayune, one of the largest papers in the south, 32 years ago. In 1835 he published a tri-weekly paper of his own, and in 1839, after his health failed, he wrote editorials for the Kansas City Star until his death, a few years later.

LYCEUM DOG ACTOR FOOLS IRENE LORTON AT CRUCIAL MOMENT

That there are many trials and tribulations in the show business can be attested by Director Holland at the Lyceum theatre. Notwithstanding the production of the highest hit of the Lyceum Players, "Peg o' My Heart," which has been running for a number of weeks, there was another difficulty to overcome in the training of an amateur actor for a most important role. This was Michael, the dog, who being satisfied to be carried on the stage, the next night, in the arms of the charming leading lady, Michael did the able assistance of Miss Irene Lorton. Michael managed to finish the show on a very bad condition. On Tuesday night Michael was determined that he would never go through those painful incidents again and just as Miss Lorton was about to make her entrance there was no Michael. A search was instituted in every corner of the stage set to no avail. Michael had made his bow, and disappeared. After ten minutes of suspense a stage hand returned with another Michael and the play was resumed. Director Holland said that dogs are barred as actors.

EXTRAORDINARY ARRAY OF FILMS FOR EMPRESS PATRONS FOR TWO DAYS

There is an extraordinary outlay of good things on the program at the Empress theatre for the last two days of this week, chief among which is a series of war films secured from the private collection of a well-known Edmontonian for presentation at the Empress theatre only. Demonstrations equal to any ever seen in Edmonton are in store for the audience, and the audience will have a good time.

MINSTREL MAIDS AT EMPIRE THEATRE FOR EXHIBITION WEEK

Edmonton theatergoers have a treat in store for them when the "Merry Minstrel Maids," a remarkably clever aggregation of entertainers, come to the Empire theatre next Monday, for a three-week engagement.

These noted entertainers carry through a show that is of decided interest from start to finish. Every-thing is presented in a manner which has broken all records for attendance. It is not usual for a big show to be produced by young women only, but that is what the "Merry Minstrel Maids" do. They do not only carry through the show, but the stage is managed and the company is looked after by women. Miss Grace Russell, who is bringing the company here, is regarded by many as one of the most enterprising and successful show managers of today. She attributes her success in the theatrical world to hard work and her ability as a press agent, which has enabled her to book the "Minstrel Maids" for an extended tour of Australia. As a press agent Miss Russell often wins out where many men would fail because she has had experience in the newspaper field. Her father, Captain William P. De la Chaine, was managing editor of the New Orleans (La.) Picayune, one of the largest papers in the south, 32 years ago. In 1835 he published a tri-weekly paper of his own, and in 1839, after his health failed, he wrote editorials for the Kansas City Star until his death, a few years later.

LYCEUM DOG ACTOR FOOLS IRENE LORTON AT CRUCIAL MOMENT

That there are many trials and tribulations in the show business can be attested by Director Holland at the Lyceum theatre. Notwithstanding the production of the highest hit of the Lyceum Players, "Peg o' My Heart," which has been running for a number of weeks, there was another difficulty to overcome in the training of an amateur actor for a most important role. This was Michael, the dog, who being satisfied to be carried on the stage, the next night, in the arms of the charming leading lady, Michael did the able assistance of Miss Irene Lorton. Michael managed to finish the show on a very bad condition. On Tuesday night Michael was determined that he would never go through those painful incidents again and just as Miss Lorton was about to make her entrance there was no Michael. A search was instituted in every corner of the stage set to no avail. Michael had made his bow, and disappeared. After ten minutes of suspense a stage hand returned with another Michael and the play was resumed. Director Holland said that dogs are barred as actors.

EVERYTHING FOR FUN AMATEUR NIGHT AT POPULAR BIJU THEATRE

Tonight is the regular weekly amateur night at the Bijou theatre, and it is a place where the amateur can give a good show. WIRELESS STATION IS BEING BUILT ON ROOF OF PANTAGES THEATRE

A wireless station is now under the course of construction on the roof of the Pantages theatre, and from it late war messages will be received and announced to the audience at every performance. For the last two days the patrons of the theatre have heard the wireless station in the theatre, and the audience will have a good time.

HEWITT BEATS BRONKS SECOND TIME IN THIS CALGARY SERIES

Score Was 5 to 1, Making Clean Sweep of Series for Eskimos—But For Povey Dropping High Fly, Hewitt Would Have Had Shut-out.

Calgary, Aug. 7.—Edmonton made a clean sweep of the series by winning last night's game by the score of 5 to 1. Hewitt, who pitched Tuesday's game and won it, asked for another chance and got his second victory of the series. He pitched good ball and would have shut out the locals but for an error by Povey, who dropped Dale's bunt fly.

Battiste, pitching for Calgary, pitched good ball, but errors at critical times spoiled his chances of winning.

RECORD LOWERED AT GRAND RAPIDS

By Etawah, Four-year-old Colt Who Does Mile in 2.03 3/4

Grand Rapids, Mich., Aug. 7.—Etawah, who two weeks ago at Cleveland broke the four-year-old colt record held by Directum for 21 years, clipped another quarter of a second from the mark at today's grand circuit meeting when, driven by Gers in an exhibition mile, he covered the distance in 2:03 3/4. King Coachman easily won the $1,000 Comstock stake for 211 pacers in straight heats.

After finishing poorly in two heats of the 2.08 pace, Omar showed surprising speed and captured the next three. The handicap sweepstakes was won by Grace, who started 162 feet back of the wire, the greatest handicap. The race went four heats, Grace taking the last two.

Biggest Car in Town.
Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 8.—Last week Frank McCrilly of Robinson, Ill., visited the Cole factory and when he departed drove a Cole "Big Six" to his home city. Word from that city assures the reader that the car is the "biggest in town."

AUSTRALIANS IN LEAD DAVIS CUP

Have Shown Great Form by Beating All Comers at the Tennis Game.

Boston, Aug. 7.—Two well won victories in singles gave Australia a long lead in the tennis contest with the British Isles, for the honor of meeting America in the challenge round of the Davis cup next week. Norman Brookes just managed to defeat J. C. Burke in sets to two, 6-2, 6-0, 6-3, 1-6, 7-5, while A. F. Wilding, of the same Antipodean team, put out Arthur Shuster in straight sets 6-3, 6-1, 6-1. Both Australians were forced to the top of their individual game and Brookes was much exhausted when Burke, in the last stroke, went out of court.

LIPTON SAYS YACHT RACES NOT CALLED OFF

London, Aug. 7.—Sir Thomas Lipton, who came down town yesterday to attend a meeting of purveyors of food and provisions, stated that he had spent two hours in the home office to regulate prices so that no high rates should be maintained by the retailers without protest from them.

He sent micrograms in the afternoon endeavoring to reach the Shamrock yacht with orders to put in at the nearest port. Sir Thomas states that the report that the yacht races were cancelled is not true as he could not do so without consulting the New York Yacht club. Unless, therefore, matters interfere, he expects to sail in the Aquitania as arranged, whenever that vessel is able to leave port.

SWIFTS BEAT C.P.R.

A Swifts defeated the C.P.R. in a winter football game last evening on Diamond Park. The half time score was 2 to 1. The game was fast throughout. The teams lined up as follows:

C.P.R.—Convery; Black, Rutter, Donny, Finch and Barrette; Beattie, Wright, M. Kirton, Featherbrides and B. E. Kirton.

Swifts—Dunn; Bowater and Moffatt, Glasgow, Warner and Brad; Biege, Cuffe and McCurdy. (Played nine men).

Referee, J. Caldwell.

RECEIPTS AT BALL GAMES ARE NOT BIG

Reports From All Parts Show Attendance Not Up to Standard.

ATTRIBUTED TO THE DULLNESS IN TRADE

Organized baseball and especially the major leagues will not look back on 1914 as a year of golden harvests. With midsummer rapidly approaching reports from all parts of the country are to the effect that attendance figures are not up to the usual standard. The reasons assigned for this unusual state of affairs are extremely varied. The advent of the Federal league is not generally given as a contributing cause, and it is known that the new organization is not any better supported than the older organizations. One authority, who, owing to his position, has access to the returns, said recently:

"I attribute the falling off of attendance to the general dullness in business. Baseball is like any other attraction that depends upon the public for support. It feels business depression and under the circumstances it is not surprising that we should hear complaints."

The situation is one which readily lends itself to pessimistic and sensational reports but there is no thought on the part of those who have made the shutters of the circuit is necessary such changes will be made in due time. There is no tendency, however, to act on snap judgment. President Edward Barrow of the International league voiced the general sentiment of organized baseball when he said about the subject:

"I am not prepared to say what future developments may arise or whether conditions may not ultimately demand a revision of the circuit. But this I will say, and say most positively, no change is contemplated this season. And if any change is made in future it will be by the unanimous consent of the club presidents. Our constitution demands that courtesy. Baseball generally this season is not in as flourishing a condition as it has been in the last several seasons. But the International league has been hit no harder than any of the other leagues."

Rifle Meets Postponed.
St. John N.B., Aug. 7.—The annual meet of the New Brunswick rifle association, which was to have been held from August 18 to 21, has been indefinitely postponed. Secretary Major Terley wired Col. Humphrey, D.O.C., at Halifax, and was notified to cancel arrangements as he was advised that the Nova Scotia meet has been cancelled. Advice have been received from Ottawa that the Dominion meet August 24 to 29 has been postponed also.

RED SOX BACK TO SECOND PLACE BY BEATING MILLERS TWO GAMES

Scores Were 9 to 6 and 8 to 4—Winners Played Snappy Ball With New Pitcher Kennedy—Moose Jaw Had No Pep, and Lost.

Moose Jaw, Aug. 7.—Regina went into second place in the league standings again yesterday, taking both ends of a double bill from the locals by scores of 9 to 6 and 8 to 4. There are no new faces to offer for the defeats as the Millers played like a lot of wooden Indians compared to the snappy article put up by the visitors.

Kennedy, a new man, twirled for Regina in the evening game and made good. A crucial seven game series with the Saskatoon Quakers starts here today.

QUAKERS WIN ONE GAME AND TIE ANOTHER AGAINST MEDICINE HAT

Scores Were 4 to 3 With Kallio Pitching, and 7 to 7 When Game Was Called in Evening—Stub Spencer in Second Game.

Medicine Hat, Aug. 7.—Kallio's great pitching won the first game of yesterday's doubleheader from Medicine Hat, and the evening game was called when the game stood 7 to 7 tie, which leaves the series for the locals four won, two lost, and one tied. The first game was a brilliant exhibition and in the last inning the locals had it won, had they been able to produce a batter who could make a hit to the outfield as they had the tying run on third and the winning run on second with no one out. But Kallio put up a really wonderful exhibition of pitching and put the Hatter's three leading batters out. The second game was a combination of errors on the part of each team, 8 visitors on their merits should have won, but Kallio gave them the 4 to 7 lead, which they had and Kallio lost their victory.

Athabasca was sold to M. McAlpine of Regina, after winning the six and a half furlong event. J. D. Ferguson of this city, was the favorite owner.

William Kane, 70, has retired on a pension after serving 50 years as a porter in Grand Central station, New York.
